THE MAINE WORDS

AYUH Yes, affirmative; “Ayuh, it’s spring in Maine — 35 degrees and cloudy.”

CUNNING Cute, adorable; “Her daughter is wicked cunning.”

DARKER THAN A POCKET No light; “Jeezum, it’s darker than a pocket in this attic!”

FINEST KIND Used variously, as a general indication of approval; also used ironically; “That was an awesome dinner; finest kind.”

GLOB AROUND To relax, or chill out; “We went up to camp and just globbed around all weekend.”

GROANERS a whistling buoy or foghorn; “Those groaners are freak-ing me out so much I can’t sleep!”

MONEY CAT A calico cat, especially one with at least three colors; “Aunt Kathy’s new kitten is a money cat; she’s good luck.”

NO BIGGER THAN A FART IN A MITTEN Tiny; “Aww, look at her, she’s no bigger than a fart in a mitten!”

PLOYE traditional Acadian buckwheat pancake; “Ployes with butter and maple syrup are totally delicious.”

RILEY Used to describe the color of the ocean after a big storm; “The bay was all riley this morning.”

SPLEENY Feeling nervous or anxious about something; “I’m too spleeny to run right into the lake.”

TEEMING Heavy rain; “It was teeming wicked hard last night.”

WICKED Synonym for ‘very,’ to a high degree, extremely, exceedingly; “That movie was wicked cool,” or “That guy that cut me off is a wicked jerk.”

YARD ON IT To pull hard; “Just grab hold and yard on it ‘til it comes out.”

YEE YAW To wiggle something to make it work; “You’ve got to yee yaw the handle after you flush.”
